

91 PTS

The Wine Advocate

Pale to medium ruby-purple, the 2015 Pinot Noir McMinnville has a lovely nose of violet and underbrush over a core of red and black cherries and touches of tilled soil.

Medium-bodied, it fills the mouth with dark cherries flavors with floral and earthy notions, framed by fine-grained tannins and wonderful juicy acidity, finishing long and minerally.

2,400 cases produced.

92 PTS

jamesuckling.com

Aromas of rose petals, orchids, dried strawberries and cherries. Medium body, tight and precise tannins and a long and minerally finish. Drink from 2020.

